

Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity

Stress. Anxiety. Fear. These words capture well the state of mind of many of us in America today. We have witnessed dramatic market losses, the collapse of the world's largest insurance company, and many bankruptcies and mergers. Every day seems to bring another piece of economic uncertainty.

A recent survey found that over three in four Americans are stressed about the economy and their personal finances. Half were worried about providing for their family's basic needs. Over half of respondents reported feeling angry and irritable, and reported lying awake at night worried about this. The report concludes that, "The declining state of the nation's economy is taking a physical and emotional toll on people nationwide." Our nation is experiencing what many have described as the "American Nightmare." Increasing consumer debt, declines in savings, lower income growth, and a volatile stock market are all a part of our economic insecurity. We have lived in a society that tells us "you deserve it now," whether or not we can afford it or really even need it. We seem to work harder and longer and seem to get nowhere.

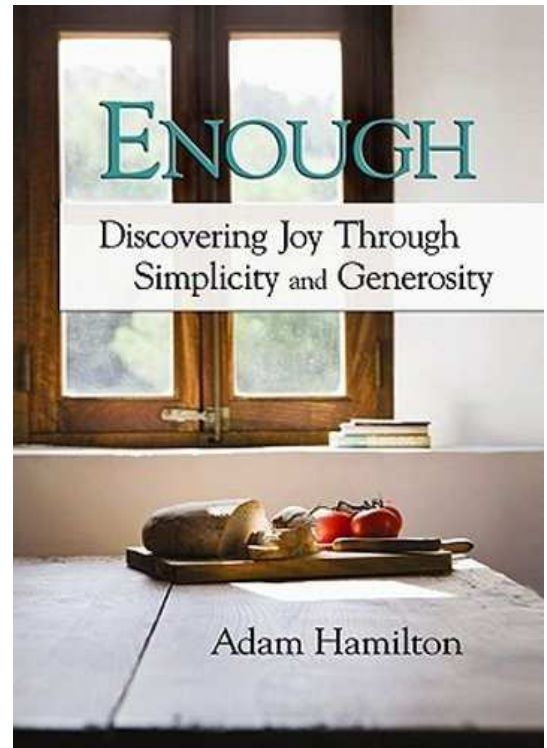

All of us have struggled with these issues at one time or another. They are important issues that we cannot ignore. This is why, beginning on September 20th and continuing for 6 weeks, we will be having a church-wide study and worship emphasis called Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity. During this time we will explore what the Bible teaches us about our focus, our time, and our financial management through corporate worship and small group study. We'll hear expert advice and stories about what others have learned by working through financial challenges. Each week we will provide you with some practical tools you can use to assess your financial situation and develop a financial plan with a biblical foundation.

Join us beginning September 20th for 6-week study and for a 4-week sermon series beginning on September 27th entitled Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity. (see the schedule that follows).

We will have several study groups on Sunday Morning at 9:00 AM and one on Tuesday Evening at 7:30 PM. Both study times will last for about 60 minutes. Sign up sheets will be available after Sunday Worship or you may call the Church Office at 249-2449.

At the conclusion of the emphasis, we will have the opportunity to make personal commitments of our time, efforts, and offerings to God through our church in the coming year. We will consecrate these commitments in the worship service on the final Sunday.

We hope you will join us in the coming weeks as we look at how we can manage our resources and truly experience simplicity, generosity, and joy.
